

Code of Conduct

Members of the Saraland Area Chamber of Commerce are expected to adhere to the following requirements regarding conduct:

1. Engage in business and professional activities in a legal and reputable manner so as to reflect honorably upon the local business community.
2. Understand, support, and promote the Vision and Mission of the Saraland Area Chamber of Commerce and co-operate with fellow members in the application of the same.
3. Whenever reasonably possible, participate in the functions and activities of the Chamber.
4. Refrain from condoning or engaging in unethical practices.
5. Refrain from publicly disparaging the business practices of fellow Chamber members.

Failure to adhere to the professional and personal obligations of the Saraland Chamber of Commerce, as outlined above, and defined in the Chamber Bylaws, can result in the termination of your membership.
